DANCE WORKSHOP WITH THE GREAT LADIES OF DANCES FROM AFRICA
FEBRUARY 19TH TO MARCH 3RD 2018

The Center – Since 1998, Ecole des Sables organizes, on a regular basis, dance workshops for dancers from Africa and elsewhere. The Center contributes to the development of the African Contemporary Dance and is a real platform for encounters and exchanges.

The Workshop – Dancers from all around the world with different profiles will come participate to this unique opportunity of dancing with the key figures of the affirmation of contemporary dance in Africa. These world-known dance referents that have guided several generations of dancers worldwide will be teaching together for the same time at Ecole des Sables.

The Participants – The workshop is addressed to dancers of the world interested in African contemporary dance and in living a unique experience at the Ecole des Sables.

The Great Ladies :

Germaine Acogny (Senegal) ; Irène Tassembédo (Burkina Faso)

Flora Théfaine (Togo) ; Elsa Wolliaaston (United States)

The Program – 2 weeks. 6 hours dance classes by day. Saturday mornings are dedicated to research and exploration workshops. 1 excursion is planned on Sunday.

The Place – Ecole des Sables is located near Toubab Dialaw, a fishermen's village 53 kilometers south of Dakar, close to a lagoon between ocean and savannah. The Center holds 2 dance studios (400 m² and 280 m²), 24 bungalows for accommodation, a restaurant, a conference room and an infirmary.

The price – The workshop costs 850 € including accommodation and meals at the center facilities for 2 weeks, transfer from and to the airport, and 60 hours of dance classes. The travel related costs and a compulsory health international insurance are to be covered by the participants.

Inscription – Deadline January 15th 2018

Please send us a presentation letter and the registration form filled in and signed to the email address: Stageworkshop@jantbi.org (The form is available in our website (www.ecoledessables.org))
